PASTORAL COMMISSIONS IN LIGHT OF THE NEW EVANGELIZATION

INTRODUCTION

Our Lord Jesus Christ, the Prophet, Priest and King, came that we may be empowered with his life to the full (Jn.10:10). The beauty of this Mission was already at Creation, since all that was created was through him (Jn. 1, 1-10), the Word that was made flesh! (Jn. 1, 14). )

In promoting the three pastoral Commissions in this era of New Evangelization, we aim at deepening our life in Christ, thus moving from a faith of habit to a personal living experience of the Savior. Soon after Bapstim, we are anointed with the Holy oil of Chrism and are reminded to live according to the life of Christ, the Prophet, the Priest and King.

Promoting the three Pastoral Commissions brings this task live into our daily life and Ministry. Thank God, the Spirit of God inspired Archbishop Dr. C. K. Lwanga, that we live and implement our Synod Acts within this Christological pattern!

VISION

That we may have life to the Full (Jn. 10:10)

MISSION

To fully grow into the Life of Christ the Prophet, Priest and King.

CORE VALUES

1. To simplify the three Pastoral Commissions: Teaching, Sanctifying and Governing into our life in light of New Evangelization.
2. To move from a faith of habit to a personal living experience of Jesus Christ.
3. To focus our Pastoral Ministry on the identity and Ministry of Christ.
4. To live and implement our Synod Statutes (2006-ff) in the spirit of New Evangelization.
5. To re-commit ourselves as witnesses of Christ (Acts 1:8) after the example of the Uganda Martyrs, especially after the golden Jubilee of their canonization (1964-2014) and the consequent Pilgrimage of Pope Francis to Uganda (27-29 November 2015). To Christianize those social aspects of Life that are still undeveloped.
